

MYSTERY BOOK CLUB (MBC) at MANCHESTER PUBLIC LIBRARY

A LIST OF ALL THE BOOKS THE MBC HAS READ FROM INCEPTION IN 2002 THROUGH "THE PRESENT"

Updated for Sep 1, 2026

There is an outline of the MBC leadership history on page 2.

The Same List of Books is Sorted & Displayed FOUR Ways:

BY DATE READ: Starting on Page 3 (284 meeting dates shown)

BY AUTHOR: Starting on Page 9

BY TITLE: Starting on Page 15 (There are 279 titles; that's because a few books listed in "early days" were read again recently. They only count once in total books read.)

NOTES:

- The Reading "Year" – Starts in September of each year; September through August.
- Prior to Sep, 2004: Only some of the books, based on the memory of an early participant, are listed. Reading dates for these early books are not known; instead you'll see "DMC," meaning "Dawn of the Mystery Book Club."
- Prior to Sep, 2006: A FEW of the books for the year may be in the wrong month. After Sep, 2006: Each book and reading month is accurately listed.
- Average of our readers' book scores. Keeping a record of the scores is a relatively recent goal (2017). Only 3 scores are listed from before 2014, and that via the "oral tradition." To understand the scores, know that MBC participants seldom, if ever, score a book higher than 94; and rules prohibit scores lower than 50. With that in mind, here is guidance for interpreting the average score for any book:
 - Scores 86 and higher can be considered a positive recommendation, and even more so the higher it is.
 - Scores 73 and lower can be considered a recommendation against choosing the book to read.
 - Scores between 74 and 85 are hard to interpret. For example, an 81 might be considered a solid B-, or, it could also indicate a polarized reaction with half the group really liking it and the other half really disliking it. In other words, scores in this range are difficult to rely on one way or the other.
- The grand total of books read [in the yellow box above] does not include another 100+ books read in various sub-groups during the years. Sub-groups were informally created by mystery book club members, usually for the purpose of reading all of the books of a favored author. There have been sub groups for example, to read all of Robert Parker's Spenser series, all of Michael Connelly's Harry Bosch and Mickey Haller series, and all of Louise Penny's Inspector Gamache series.

An Outline of the Mystery Book Club's Leadership History

The Mystery Book Club (MBC) began at the instigation of Lois Kiefer, Athena Thibodeau, and Joe Wrobel early in 2002 (exact date unknown). These members, and other beloved members, have since passed away. Carol Zoppel, a staff Librarian, was the original group leader until she resigned in the summer of 2005.

Mike O'Connor (newly appointed Reference Librarian) assumed leadership of the MBC in September of 2005. He continued in that role until he retired as a Librarian at the end of May, 2011. During the year that followed, Mike respectfully declined to participate, but rejoined the group a year later.

After Mike's retirement, Dick Goutal (who had been attending the MBC since the fall of 2003) began leading the MBC in June of 2011.

In October of 2011, Rachael Meneades became the Head of Adult Services at the Library and a few months later became an active participant and supporter of the MBC as well as liaison between the MBC and Library staff. Rachael resigned in May of 2022 to accept a library position elsewhere on the North Shore.

Maddy Willwerth joined our Library staff in July of 2022 as the new Head of Adult Services and became the new liaison between the MBC and Library staff. In September, 2024, Maddy took over responsibility for the Mystery Book Club.

As of June 2026, the longest living participating MBC members are Dick Goutal (2003-2026 - 23 years) and Mike O'Connor (2005-2025 - 20 years). Members who have participated for at least 13 years include: Patricia Breau, Anne Coccoluto, Selena Evans, and Carol McKenna.

LIST 4 - BY AVERAGE SCORE OF THE MBC PARTICIPANTS (From Highest Average Score to Lowest)

Not all the books are listed here - only 117! We began the practice of asking everyone to share their score for a book using the Grading Form in the fall of 2006. But it was not until the fall of 2017 that I began to save book averages (sort of) systematically. To this I added the very few other random scores that have been saved. Three books marked with an asterisk (*) next to the title, are there because of the miracle of such extreme scores having been told and told enough times that they are unforgettable.

See Page 1 for Interpretation of Score Values
